We esteem it a good providence which has put him in the forefront of leadership in forming and directing the order and operations of our great system of education which we hold to be a vital factor in those agencies which shall enable us to spread scriptural holiness over all the land. With a brother's heart he has borne our messages of love to other bodies of Methodism and has charmed all audiences with the eloquence and spirituality of his deliverances. In the work of his Episcopal office he has been among the leaders who have founded and developed our missions in foreign lands. In Mississippi, his home, he has been the recognized leader in marshalling the hosts and planning the campaign for the prohibition of the liquor traffic.

These considerations draw our hearts to him in bonds of closest affection. We honor ourselves when we honor so noble a leader. We desire to assure him of our unhesitating confidence and of our pleasure to move under the direction of his official administration. This expression admits no invidious distinction since it is but natural that we should at all times be inclined to speak our appreciation of a career passed among us and before us with unblemished fidelity to those principles which are essential to the loftiest and noblest character.

He was admitted on trial into the traveling connection by the Memphis Conference at Jackson, Tenn., in Nov. 1847. His first charge was as junior preacher on a negro mission in the country lying between Grenada, Miss., and Water Valley. After six months he was sent to the Aberdeen circuit where he served one year and six months, then two years on the Richmond circuit and two years on the Fulton circuit. He then bought a home near Big Creek in Calhoun county, where he lived till one year before his death. Except one year on the Rienzi circuit, his ministerial life was spent in the neighborhood of his home. In all, at different times, he traveled the Pittsboro circuit ten years. Your committee regret that no list of his appointments is available at this time. He was ordained deacon by Bishop James O. Andrew in 1849 and elder by Bishop Robert Paine in 1851.

Brother Hampton was wonderfully gifted in song, in prayer and in exhortation, and with these gifts he accomplished a great work for God and was the instrument in the salvation of hundreds and thousands of souls. It is said that, mainly through his influence there has never been an open saloon in Calhoun county in this state.

He came to his end at a full age, 87, like as a shock of corn cometh in his season. He died at the home of his granddaughter near Kilmichael this year, date not known to your committee.

Chairman.

The Wives of the Preachers.

Your committee beg to make brief mention of the following elect women, wives of our preachers, who have fallen on sleep this year.

Mrs. L. L. Barton, wife of Rev. W. P. Barton, of precious memory, was a woman of the highest type of Christian character. Richly endowed, highly cultivated, deeply pious and well informed in the doctrines and discipline of our church and perfectly familiar with the word of God, she was well qualified to fill and adorn any station in the church to which the work of her husband called her.

Mrs. Ella J. Cameron was born and brought up in a Female College and amid the most polished and intellectual associations and, hence, was fitted to make a helpmeet for her husband in the high and holy calling of the Christian ministry. She was an invalid and confined to her room and bed a large part of her married life. She was a patient sufferer, exhibiting to all who visited her the power of grace to sustain in every hour of trial.

Mrs. Kitty May Evans was brought up in a Methodist Christian home where the fire always burned on the family altar and where God's name was always honored. In this way she was well fitted for her brief experience as the wife of an itinerant preacher. She was a woman of sound judgment, of uniform piety and abundant usefulness both before and after her marriage to Brother Evans.

Mrs. Bessie Thomas was well educated, deeply pious and a woman of great gentleness and sweetness of disposition. Owing to ill health she was never able to take an active part in the work of the church, and yet, she was wonderfully useful in all places where her husband was called to serve. Her life was so consistent, so sweet, so gentle that it commended the grace and gospel of God to all who came under her influence.

Mrs. Mary Koger Stone was the daughter of Rev. Jeff Koger of the Alabama conference. She was educated in Summerfield, Ala. She was a cultivated Christian woman and a woman of great force of character. As a teacher in and President of the Verona Female College she exhibited fine administrative ability. For fifteen years Sister Stone was the Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society of this Conference and was second to no one in developing this work among our women.

Mrs. Sallie Poston, well known to all of us, was sensible, pious, consistent and self-sacrificing during her whole life. She and her honored husband served God and the church faithfully in some of the hardest and most difficult fields in our bounds, and yet not one word of complaint was heard to fall from her lips. She was modest, gentle and retiring, but always full of faith and love.

These all having died in the faith have gone to their reward.

R. G. PORTER,
Chairman.

REPORTS.

The Spiritual Interests of the Church.

We most heartily endorse the teaching of our excellent book of discipline which says: "Brethren, the church is of God, and will be preserved to the end of time, for the promotion of his worship and the due administration of His word and ordinances, the maintenance of Christian fellowship and discipline, the edification of believers and the conversion of the world. We are not of those who believe that the church is losing influence and power and going down. On the contrary we have a firm and abiding confidence that God is still in the midst of His people, and that Christ Jesus is still leading His militant hosts on to victory and to final triumph.

With a feeling of profound gratitude to God, we record the cheering notes of progress heard in the reports of the Presiding Elders and preachers in charge.

There is marked improvement in the material interests of the church as seen in the building up of the waste places, the erection of new houses of worship, the prosperity of our institutions of learning, and in the success of other enterprises of the church.

There is also most gratifying reports of the financial work of the church. Many of our preachers have had their salaries paid in full, while others have received an increase over former years. The connectional claims of the church have been fully met by many of the charges, while others show an increase in the amount collected.

This advance in our material interests indicates growth and progress, not only in the grace of Christian liberality, but also in spiritual life. For as men become more religious, more consecrated to God, they abound more and more in liberality, and more readily respond to the demands of the church in material things.

But there are evidences of spiritual life and power also, as seen in the revival meetings held, and in the many hundreds that have been converted and brought into the communion and fellowship of the church.

We believe that the leaven of the Gospel is widening and deepening in its influence and that it is exerting an uplifting and controlling power among men; abating evil and reforming society. Under this mighty and benign leaven, our social life is improved and elevated, the church purified and established, and the world made better. God still rules, "The Kingdom is coming."

While we take this hopeful view of the spiritual state of the church we are not unmindful of the dangers which surround us. The world, with its fashionable vices and its blandishments, seeks to come within the church. Without we are confronted by abounding wickedness, and antagonized by malevolent opposition.

Christianity is a warfare, and the church is yet in the militant state. And we are admonished to be clad with the Gospel Armor, and to endure hardness as good soldiers of Christ.

We are unalterably opposed to those worldly amusements which tend to lower the fervor of spiritual life and to lead our people away from God and the church, such as theatre and circus going, horse racing, card playing and dancing and all other diversions that cannot be taken in the name of the Lord. In this connection, we mention as under the ban and condemnation of the church, all kinds of gambling, including the dealing in cotton futures, raffling and playing for prizes at the card party.

It becomes us to be vigilant and faithful, and by a firm, yet kind and judicious administration of discipline to prevent the spirit of worldliness, and a tolerance of sin from coming into the church and entrenching themselves within our sacred pale.

From a general review of the church, we believe there is cause for profound gratitude to God for the many signs of spiritual growth, progress and power to be seen.

Let us, brethren, be true to the church, earnest, faithful, constant. Let us, looking up thank God, take courage and go on our way rejoicing.

T. C. WIER,
For the Committee.

Sabbath Observance.

Your Committee on the Observance of the Sabbath respectfully submit the following for your adoption:

We regret to note the widespread misconception of the principle upon which rests the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath, making physical and mental rest or idleness instead of holy worship its plea for observance and ground of sacredness.

Your committee insist that in the worship of God alone is the Sabbath truly and rightly kept holy, without reference to the amount of activity or inactivity with which it is attended.

Let us not, therefore, unduly condemn him who must toil as he worships, nor praise him who in idleness fails to worship God truly. Unworshipful idleness is no more to be praised, nor less condemned than the performance of unnecessary toil on the Sabbath Day.

THEREFORE. Be it resolved, 1st, that we condemn the selfish use of the Sabbath for any other purpose than that of public and private worship, with regard to the manner in which the day is spent.

2. That in accordance with the request of the American Sunday League, Bishop Smith be requested to appoint two delegates to the Sunday Congress to be held in the city of St. Louis, in October of 1904.

C. H. PITTMAN,
For the Committee

AMENDMENT.

Resolved, 1st, That we petition our legislature at its next session to enact a law prohibiting the running of freight and excursion trains on Sunday and all unnecessary labor.

2nd, That we condemn the patronage of the mails and Sunday newspapers so prevalent among our people.

P. E. DUNCAN,
W. S. SHIPMAN,
W. M. YOUNG

Holly Springs, Miss., Dec. 5, 1903.

On Temperance.

Your committee beg leave to submit the following:

The honorable, consistent and glorious record of our beloved Methodism on temperance is known to all intelligent men.

In Mississippi, as elsewhere, we give place to none in enthusiasm, well directed effort, and unfaltering loyalty to this cause.

We rejoice in the harmony and unity existing among our temperance workers since Feb. 17, 1903, and believe it to be the harbinger of a victory that will make glad the hearts of all who love manhood more than money, womanhood more than wine, and character more than all earthly consideration.

We have made careful investigation, and find a healthful public sentiment anent the temperance question in north Mississippi. There are only 21 saloons within our bounds, and they are confined to two counties. While reaffirming our allegiance to this cause, not abating one iota the high ground previously taken, we would put ourselves on record as follows:

We believe it to be the duty of all our preachers to instruct their people on good citizenship, moral stamina, temperance, and the sacredness of the ballot.

We would also urge that temperance literature be distributed, organization effected, and that character of agitation continued that will crystalize and unify temperance sentiment, encourage our women, and point out, not only the moral vantage ground, but the financial betterment of dry communities.

Furthermore, we reaffirm our condemnation of any Christian man ever signing liquor petitions, or in any way countenancing "blind tigers," or encouraging the sale of whiskey. Therefore,

RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this body, while avoiding party politics, that our preachers urge our people to work and vote for constitutional amendment, to be followed by statutory enactment, as adopted by the temperance workers assembled in Jackson, Miss., Feb. 17, 1903; and that we commend the conservative spirit of our recognized leader, Bishop Chas. B. Galloway, and pledge ourselves anew to the course he has so long pursued, on the safe measures he advocates.

We note with especial pleasure the introduction of the Humphrey bill, by Hon. B. G. Humphrey, of the 3d Congressional District, looking to the prevention of the issuance of U. S. license in dry sections; and also the Hepburn bill, looking to the prevention of the shipping of whiskey from wet to dry sections, heartily commend both, and earnestly request our representatives in Congress to champion same.

Finally, we urge our preachers and laymen to be alive at once to the pending constitutional amendment which will be submitted to the people next summer. We believe we must act immediately, intelligently and continuously, else we will not maintain the ground already gained.

Finally, brethren, watch, pray, work, vote till the places that now know the sale of whiskey shall know it no more.

We recommend that two delegates be elected by this body to represent us at Washington, D. C., Dec. 9-11, at the Anti-Saloon League Conference.

Respectfully,

J. A. BOWEN, Chairman.
JAMES H. FELTS, Secretary.
For the Committee.

Bible Cause.

The American Bible Society was organized in 1816. It issued last year 1,723,721 volumes in more than a hundred tongues, and scattered them over home and foreign lands, thus touching almost every mission field. Last year the Society sent out in books and funds, $215,245.82.

There has been a decrease in our conference of Auxiliary Societies, thus decreasing the receipt of the company, but we rejoice in an increase in payment of conference assessments.

On the 1st Sabbath in March, 1904, the British and Foreign Bible Society will celebrate its 100th anniversary. On this occasion every Protestant Church in the world will be called upon to make special effort to get the work and needs of the Society before the people. Let us not forget it in the North Mississippi conference.

We commend the efforts of Dr. G. D. French, of Morristown, Tenn., and rejoice in the forward movement he has inaugurated in our Southern church.

We report this year collections amounting to $948.50.

We recommend assessments for next year, apportioned as follows:

Sardis District	$140	Grenada District	$130
Winona District	145	Durant District.....	120
Columbus District.....	145	Aberdeen District	136
Corinth District	120	Holly Springs.....	109
		Greenville District.....	155
Total.....		$1200

J. E. CUNNINGHAM, Treasurer.
For the Board.

Books and Periodicals.

Your committee is glad to be able to report that there are evidences of increasing success, as given by the exhibit made in the annual report of our book agents, Messrs. Smith & Lamar, in the condition of our publishing interests in Nashville.

This exhibit was made on the 31st of March, 1903, and approved by Book Committee. It shows that the sales for the fiscal year amounted to $437,336.68; an increase of $16,053.94 over last year, and an increase of $36,636.38 over the year before last. This is certainly gratifying progress.

We are also glad to learn that the branch house in Dallas, Tex., is doing well. It is also cause for great satisfaction and gratitude to learn that the Union Publishing House in Shanghai, China, has been established, and furnished with the best machinery to be obtained in the world, and has been at work for some months.

While we are gratified that our House is a financial success, the greatest cause for gratification is that it is furnishing to the church and the world an abundance of the very finest quality of Christian literature.

The Nashville Christian Advocate, our connectional organ, still maintains a very high standard of religious and literary character, and as it maintains a connectional relation to the church, the most earnest and persistent effort should be put forth for its circulation throughout the connection. Ministers and laymen should work to the accomplishment of this end.

The Methodist Quarterly Review still maintains its high ranks as one of the best periodicals of its kind.

We are gratified to learn that the loss on the Review is just a little over half as much as it was last year. At this rate in one or two more years it will be self-sustaining. It would not only pay the House, if all our preachers would take, read and circulate it, but they would become the greatest beneficiaries.

The Review of Missions and Go Forward have been consolidated and now comes out monthly under the name Go Forward, which is filled with matter of the highest missionary character. Perhaps next to the preaching of the gospel one of the best things that the pastor can do is to sow this broadcast among his people. Our Sunday School literature maintains its standard of peculiar adaptation to both teachers and scholars in the Sunday Schools. And we are glad to know that it is generally used in our Sunday Schools.

The Epworth Era is to be commended for its peculiar adaptation to our young people. We are glad to learn that the loss to the Publishing House for its publication for the past year is less than half as much as it was the preceding year, and this inspires the hope that it will be self-sustaining within the next twelve months.

Our own New Orleans Christian Advocate is out of debt and is self-sustaining. We are sorry to say, however, that it is barely self-supporting. With its clear statement of Methodist doctrines, its orthodoxy, sound, common sense, general information, both from the church and outside world, it ought to have a circulation, not only sufficient for the ample support of the editor and business manager, but also to enable him to make all necessary improvements.

We respectfully recommend that the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint the Rev. J. W. Boswell, D. D., as editor of the New Orleans Christian Advocate for the next conference year.

The Rev. G. W. Bachman, Conference Colporter, makes the following report:

Books sold	$2,914 38
Sunday School Literature.....	523 84
Church periodicals	213 60
Total.....	$3,651.82

We recommend that Rev. G. W. Bachman be appointed by the presiding Bishop to the place of Conference Colporter.

J. D. CAMERON, Chairman.

Sunday School Board.

REPORT NO. 1.

The Sunday School Board recommends the following appropriations for the ensuing Conference year:

$100 to needy schools to be used in the discretion of the agent of the Board on the recommendation of the pastor of the schools.

$125 for the purchase of Children's Day programs. The same to be purchased and distributed under the supervision of the agent of the Board.

For incidental expenses such a sum as, in the judgment of the Chairman and Treasurer of the Board, may be necessary.

Your Board has carefully and prayerfully considered the vital interests on which it has to report. We have had from Rev. R. P. Neblett, Agent, a full account of his work; from his statement we make the following summary: He visited 103 charges; 149 communities; held 60 teacher's meetings; conducted 11 Sunday School Institutes; Dr. and Mrs. Hamill conducted institutes at Winona and Columbus in which our agent gave valuable assistance. These institutes are reported to have been highly beneficial to the work. 25 Study Circles have been formed during the present Conference year making the total number of Study Circles in our Conference 36, and according to Dr. Hamill this puts our Conference first in the connection in this regard. In 16 towns a house to house visitation has been made in the interest of Sunday Schools with gratifying results. The agent has encouraged Teacher's Meetings wherever he has gone; but has found it difficult to establish and maintain them. The importance of using our own literature has been emphasized and special attention given to the circulation of the magazine and Children's Visitor.

At the beginning of the year the agent put himself in close touch with the General Conference Sunday School Board and officers and has worked earnestly, faithfully and with church loyalty. He has sought to encourage the organization of new schools according to our discipline, has aimed to secure an increased enrollment and to improve the methods and quality of the Sunday School work. Pastors testify that his visits have been beneficial to their work. The Board earnestly asks the hearty co-operation of Presiding Elders, pastors and superintendents in the Sunday School work. By such co-operation the work and its blessings will be greatly enlarged. It is our high aim to enlist the whole church with its children in the systematic, intellectual, spiritual study of God's word, that the young may become useful, intelligent members of the church, and have everlasting life.

In closing this report the Sunday School Board again desires to have set apart for its Anniversary Thursday evening of the next Conference session.

Respectfully submitted,

R. W. JONES, Chairman pro tem.

REPORT NO. 2.

Your Sunday School Board recommends to the Conference, the following action viz: That the Sunday School agency established at the last session of the Annual Conference be continued throughout the ensuing Conference year at the same salary and on the same terms as last Conference year. viz: $700 and his actual traveling expenses, the agent to give his entire time to the work of the Board as prescribed by it.

R. W. JONES,

Chairman, pro tem.

REPORT NO. 3.

Your Board respectfully requests the appointment of Rev. Robert P. Neblett as Agent of this Board in accordance with Report No. 1 heretofore made.

EDUCATION.REPORT NO. 1.

The work of Christian education is of fundamental importance. The church has no more worthy work before her than the fitting of her youth for the highest usefulness in life. Indeed, without this, the fulfillment of the lofty mission of redeeming and uplifting humanity must forever remain impossible. It is a significant fact that all of the mightiest moral movements in human history have had as their force the great educational institutions of the world. A denomination without strong and well equipped colleges can never be a great denomination. The wide and deepening interest of our people in Christian education, presages an incomparably glorious future for Methodism. Of all the bright omens around us, it is unquestionably one of the very brightest.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

We are pleased to report that this great institution is enjoying a year of remarkable prosperity, having already enrolled in its seven departments nearly 800 students. Easily the foremost university in the southern states and wholly under the control of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, it should command the confidence, the patronage, and prayers of all our people.

We are gratified to note that the Correspondence School authorized by the last General Conference, and maintained by the General Board of Education and the Theological Department of Vanderbilt is succeeding admirably, having enrolled up to date about 250 students. We commend this school to our young preachers, both graduates and undergraduates, and urge them to take advantage of the valuable assistance which it offers.

MILLSAPS COLLEGE.

Your Board has had under careful consideration matters pertaining to the present status and growing condition of this proud institution of our Mississippi Methodism. We note in the report of the Board of Trustees made through their honored president, Bishop Chas. B. Gallo-way, and also in the reports and information furnished the Board by Dr. W. B. Murrah, the distinguished president of the college, that it is in a healthy and flourishing condition. The short, but splendid career of this institution has far surpassed the most sanguine expectations of its warmest friends and supporters, and now all our people begin to take pride in and cherish it for the emphasis it places upon the education and training of our youth. From the beginning of its history this institution has stood for the highest and purest conception of manhood, and christian education. It is a matter of inexpressible gratification to us that the college and the ideas it stands for are growing and deepening with the passing of the years and the thinking of the masses. We rejoice in the increasing prosperity and prospects of this institution. No session of its history more significantly marks its growth and determines its place in the esteem and confidence of our people than the present session. The Board of Trustees report a large and loyal patronage which is growing faster than our facilities to meet the increasing demands. We have a firstclass institution and an unexcelled faculty of Christian gentlemen, each a specialist in his department of college work. The student body is the largest and best in its history. There are but few infractions of discipline, but on the other hand there is cheerful obedience to the authority and laws that be. There are in attendance at this time, with others constantly coming in, 214 young men; among this number are 23 studying for the ministry, and thus preparing themselves for the greatest usefulness to fallen humanity. While we have many things to make us glad in Millsaps College, we have many to make us sad. We are greatly cramped and hindered in the legitimate field of operation for lack of larger means and adequate facilities to meet the imperative and growing necessities that are daily arising. The Board of Trustees and faculty see this hindrance and deplore it. They beg us to increase our assessment for education upon the Conference, and thus come to the aid of the institution. While your Board appreciates most keenly the very embarrassing conditions and are in heartiest sympathy with the desire so expressed, we do not, under present circumstances deem it just the thing to do. We recommend that the assessment be levied upon Conference for the same sum as last year.

RESOLVED, Therefore, by the Board that we use more diligence in informing and arousing our people to an appreciation of the importance of the collection for education

2. That we by more stress, both in the pulpit and out of it on Christian Education, seek to inform our people as to the nature of this collection.

3. That we apportion all moneys in excess of the assessments to Education in a fair and equitable ratio.

L. M. LIPSCOMB, for Board of Education.

GRENADA COLLEGE.

The reports of the Board of Trustees and the President of Grenada College reveal a state of things most satisfactory and encouraging to all the friends of the institution. In fact the college seems to have entered upon the "Golden age" of its career. It has been a marked success from the beginning, but now its growth and usefulness are becoming rapid and phenomenal. Its past history is an inspiration, and its present status of unparalleled success a significant prophecy of larger and greater things to come. When the policy of the institution was changed from the old and general plan to the new and present one which is working out the greatest success, many of the best friends of the college trembled with fear as to the effect of the experiment upon the future of its history, but now the most fearful ones have seen the wisdom of the board demonstrated in the very rapid and phenomenal success which the college is achieving under the new regime.

This splendid institution, located in as healthful and cultured a community as we can boast in our bounds, stands for the uplift and educational salvation of our womanhood in North Mississippi. It is the only school of any kind whatsoever owned and controlled by this Conference, for the training and equipping of our girls for the higher walks in life, and therefore if it be as good as the best it should be most liberally patronized and zealously supported by our Methodist people. By far the best and most satisfactory session in the life of the institution, is now in progress. The college now has an enrollment of 167 pupils in the Literary Department, 114 boarding and 54 day pupils. The college boasts an excellent student body from the best homes in our bounds. The financial condition of the college is most gratifying and reassuring. The receipts fully meet current expenses and the school is not in debt. For this happy state of things the college is indebted to the present able management and the hearty support and generous patronage of its constituency. We have a finely equipped faculty of specially trained teachers and instructors in every department of college work. As a result, a higher grade of work is accomplished in the most thorough manner. The high possibilities of this institution are certainly suggested in the fact that one Presiding Elder's district has sent in 53 boarding pupils this session. A like ratio for the other districts in the Conference would place 450 girls in our college at once. But this can not be done for there is no room to receive such a number. Hence we must set about enlarging the accommodations and furnishings of the plant to this end. But even this end met, we will not have reached any great thing or half way met the responsibility and opportunity confronting us on this great question.

The college now seems to have reached its zenith of operation until we make it possible, by enlargement of buildings and increase of means, for it to advance. This is a most serious question to the thoughtful ones among us who are confidently looking forward to giving their daughters the advantages of Christian Education, under the auspices of their fathers' and mothers' church and religion. The small collection levied upon the Conference for this divine work has, although it has been so meager, made possible the great success already achieved. We shall have to continue to rely upon the collection for this purpose, and the loyalty of our preachers and people in setting forth the claims, and supporting the growing needs of the college. It is the sense of this Board that Millsaps and Grenada Colleges might be augmented in means and usefulness if our preachers will take more pains to inform the people as to these great institutions of learning, their dire needs, the ideas for which they stand, the class of work which they are doing and the relation they sustain to the intellectual and moral advancement of our commonwealth. We recommend that all our preachers and people acquaint themselves, as far as possible, with the history, needs and purpose of these worthy institutions.

RESOLVED. 1. That we will endeavor to create a larger sympathy and a more generous spirit among our people to mark these noble land marks of our Methodism in North Mississippi.

2. That we recommend the assessment of the same amount as last year for these colleges.

3. That we are gratified that the trustees have been able to add materially to the property of Grenada College, and as the prosperity of the institution will warrant still add room and better equipment.

We respectfully recommend that you reappoint Dr. W. B. Murrah President of Millsaps College and J. M. Wyatt, Business Manager of Grenada College. We recommend that Rev. W. S. Shipman, Rev. J. H. Mitchell, Dr. J. H. Sharp and Marcellus DuBard be elected trustees of Grenada College to fill vacancies caused by expiration of term.

E. S. LEWIS, Treasurer.

Mississippi Orphan's Home.

To the Bishop and Members of the North Mississippi Conference convened at Holly Springs, Miss., Dec. 2nd, 1903.

DEAR BRETHREN—The Board of Directors of the Mississippi Orphans Home is glad to be able to report added prosperity of the institution and greater increase of interest among our people. From all over the field, contributions are being sent in and the Home has evidently won its way into the hearts of our members.

Rev. W. T. Griffin has managed with great economy and wisdom, and we extend to him our sincerest thanks for his faithful and excellent service. His heart is in the work and every one seems to recognize that we have the right man in the place. He was unanimously re-elected by the board.

There are now 116 children in the Home, and altogether 246 have been cared for; 27 have been received this year and 17 have been let out by adoption and otherwise. At present, there are 4 babies, 8 having been cared for during the year. The health of the Home has been excellent, but one death having occurred during the year, that an infant of three months, ill when received.

The school is under the efficient management of Miss Cameron and Sister Griffin, and a Kindergarten has been added which puts all children except the babies, in school. We will have six months public school. Six of our girls are being educated in church colleges, one having graduated at Grenada last session. We are very grateful to these colleges for their services.

The home work is being done entirely by the children of the Home, superintended by a mistress and by one of the older girls of the Home. The farm has been cultivated by the boys under the direction of the competent superintendent, and enough corn and hay housed for all purposes, besides vegetables, potatoes, etc., for the Home table. Two bales of cotton were made and the field is in fine condition for another year.

The religious training of the Home is well cared for. Family Prayer is held night and morning. There are three Epworth Leagues, and two Home Mission Societies, all conducted by the children, and 80 are members of the church, 10 having joined this year. The Sunday School Boards of the two Conferences supply the literature for the Home, and other good books are furnished by friends.

The Home paper has a circulation of nearly 4000, and is a great help to the Home.

Thirty-five acres of valuable land were added to the property this year, making the total average of eighty-five. There has been a splendid modern steam heating plant put in at a cost of $1315, which keeps the Home comfortable in all weather. One gallery was erected on the east side, the entire length of the building. The entire building, including kitchen and laundry, has received two coats of good paint. A new balustrade has been put around the deck roof. A bath room has been put in on the first floor with porcelain lined tub and fixtures; also a hot water furnace and tank with connections throughout the building.

SUPPLEMENTARY.

We would call your attention to the fact that when the present buildings at the Home were erected, we looked to the accommodation of 120 children. The Home has now 116 children and is full. As shown by the report we have received 27 children into the Home during the past year, and they continue to knock at our doors. Being thus confronted as your servants we call your attention to this matter, and express the opinion that we should have a brick dormitory to meet these growing demands.

JNO. H. SHERARD,
For Committee.

Epworth League.

Your Board accepts the fact that the Epworth League has passed the point of being an experiment, and is an acceptable member of our family of church institutions; that it has real life and individuality, with gifts, graces and usefulness; that it has passed by grace through faith into justification before the church, is a new creature born from above, and enjoys the testimony of the spirit of helpfulness. That it may now go on unto perfection, guiding its members as instruments of righteousness unto holiness, is our prayer. All this we steadfastly believe, or is our constant desire. We look with much pleasure on the growth and progress of this young institution.

It enjoys having at its head a wise and scholarly general secretary; also the support of our Bishops, presiding elders and pastors, with a strong Board of Control. Its literature is now well-nigh complete, in quality, adaptation and extent, covering the whole range of work had in mind when the institution was established.

The general organ, the Epworth Era, stands for itself, and can not be enhanced by our commendation. The excellent reading course of four books, the literature for devotional exercises, Bible Study and Institute work, covers the whole ground, and when these are used with discretion and persistency, they constitute a great school wherein we may train our young people for great usefulness. It is a real school, with definite curriculum, suitable literature, competent teachers, and active students enrolled.

Your Board, therefore, proposes to operate this school in our midst by administrative direction and educative exercises. We propose to direct the work by the officers and members of this Board, the presiding elders and pastors. We propose to educate our Leaguers by holding conference and district league institutes and young people's services; therefore,

Resolved 1, That this Board shall prepare a programme for, and conduct annually in the week succeeding the first Sunday in May, a Conference League Institute.

2. That Easter Sunday in each year be set apart as Young People's Day, on which shall be held young people's services according to programmes suggested by this Board, and that a collection be taken on that day, one-half of which shall be retained at home, and one-half forwarded by the pastor to the secretary and treasurer of this Board, to be used in the work of this Board.

3. That this Board prepare programmes for and, in co-operation with the presiding elder, conduct a District League Institute in each district during the summer months.

4. That the pastors be directed to see to the payment of the ten cent assessment, which shall be forwarded to the secretary and treasurer of this Board, and by him to the general secretary; that this Board and conference may have knowledge of all league work as the other boards do of their work.

For the Board.

BEN P. JACO,
Secretary and Treasurer.

District Conference Records.

The following districts presented records to your committee which were carefully examined and the following criticisms made:

In the Grenada District Conference Record the official roll does not distinguish between the absent and present members.

The Winona District Conference Record is well kept.

The Holly Springs District Conference Record has the official roll badly arranged. Many words are blurred so they are wholly illegible, whole lines are scratched out or defaced by running the pen over them. In adjourning, the word recess is used instead of adjournment. The minutes are not signed by the President. They show that a report of a Woman's Parsonage and Home Missionary was recognized.

The Durant District Conference Record is neatly kept, and very accurate, but fails to show in the minutes the names of those present; nor is there reference to any marks in the roll by which this may be known.

The Columbus District Conference Record has the name of Rev. A. P. Leach as a local preacher when it should be a superannuated member of the North Mississippi Conference. One abbreviation lacking in Sunday School Superintendent. Rev. T. H. Lipscomb was recommended for Deacons' and Elders' Orders. He could hardly be both. Otherwise well kept.

The Corinth District Conference Record is incorrect in spelling and punctuation; also in the use of capital letters. In reference to the action of the Conference in recommending a young man to the annual Conference for admission on trial, the record has this statement: "John W. Anderson voting 'No.' He also gave notice that he would take an appeal in the case," when it must have had reference to the protest of the minority. There is no margin in which the paragraph could be numbered.

Aberdeen District Conference Record is neatly kept.

Sardis and Greenville Districts failed to present their records.

The criticisms of the committee is placed in each book.

Respectfully submitted,

J. RITCHEY,
For Committee.

Board of Missions.

We are gratified to note that the year has been one of advancement in every line. Our forces have been increased, our membership in foreign lands is larger than ever before, and the contributions of the home church have been in excess of any former year. One hundred and seventy-five men and women now represent us in the foreign field, and in co-operation with these there are ninety-five native pastors and seventy local preachers of the native church.

Our foreign churches are not only increasing in membership but in the efficiency of their organization, in the intelligence and earnestness of their work, and in the liberality of their contributions.

The collections on assessments during the past year were more than $22,000 in advance of the preceding year. Eleven annual conferences, about seventy-five districts, and twenty-five hundred pastoral charges paid their assessments for foreign missions in full.

This has been one of the very best years in the history of the Chinese mission. The number of converts has never been paralleled, the net numerical increase is the largest ever recorded, and the openings for the gospel were never so inviting.

Our mission in Cuba has made wonderful progress. Beginning the work there at the close of the war with Spain with less than fifty members, we now have a membership of 747, and including candidates for baptism, over nine hundred.

We rejoice again in the increased number of individuals and individual churches who are supporting missionaries in addition to the regular assessments. We believe that a sense of personal responsibility for the spread of our Lord's Kingdom, and for the final evangelization of the whole world should be pressed upon the individual conscience. Inform the mind and touch the heart of the church, and the purse of the church will be open to the needs of the world and the call of God.

We are glad to report the foreign and domestic mission funds of our Conference over eleven hundred dollars in excess of last year.

We note with pleasure the good work done by our brethren serving in the domestic mission fields.

The parent Board at its recent session, instructed the secretaries to discontinue the "Review of Missions," to enlarge "Go Forward" to twenty-four pages, and continue its publication at the former price of twenty-five cents a year. This small sum does not cover the cost of publication, but it is the desire of the Board and of the secretaries that this paper may find a place in the homes of all our people.

We recommend that a special effort be made on the part of our pastors to circulate missionary literature. Good books should be put in the hands of our people; and missionary libraries should be placed in Epworth Leagues and Sunday Schools whenever it is possible to do so.

We further recommend early collection for missions, that the interest necessitated by borrowing money to meet the current expenses of our foreign mission fields may be saved; and that we may have the money in our treasurer's hands to pay quarterly those serving our domestic mission charges.

The following resolutions were passed by the Board:

RESOLVED, That the pastors serving the various missions throughout our conference be earnestly requested to co-operate with this Board in directing their best efforts to the establishment of missionary charges instead of missions, as they now stand.

2. RESOLVED, That this Board recommend the appointment of Rev. L. W. Cain, as Conference Missionary Secretary for this Conference for the ensuing year.

L. W. CAIN,

Church Extension Board,

We are glad to report growth in Church Extension interest in our conference.

Reports show that with very few exceptions Church Extension has not been discriminated against in the collection. We insist that it is not secondary in importance to any other connectional interest, and should not be so regarded in any pastoral charge.

Sixteen churches have asked for $2100. We have had only $1350 with which to supply this demand. This fact emphasizes the importance of full collections and also the importance of not asking for help except in really needy cases.

CARROLLTON, MISS.

Joint Board of Finance.

We have had referred to us a communication from the Trustees of the M. E. Church, South, respecting the Endowment Fund of $5,000,000 which the church is endeavoring to raise for the more adequate support of the superannuate preachers of the connection, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers, and earnestly recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. Resolved, That we reaffirm our indorsement of this important undertaking and pledge our utmost effort to the securing of this great Fund.

2. Resolved, That we hereby urge the Presiding Elders and pastors to do all in their power to promote the success of this worthy enterprise of the church, charging the former to give prominence to the subject in their District and Quarterly Conferences, and the latter to present the cause and take public collection in each congregation of their pastoral charges, during the ensuing year.

3. That we are gratified at the presence of the Rev. A. F. Watkins, the General Agent for the Fund, and that we are greatly encouraged by the large measure of success that has attended his effort.

Respectfully Submitted,
